

Psychology in Transplantation – Event Program

Friday, 6th November 2009 – St James' University Hospital, Leeds

10:00 – 10:10 Welcome & Setting the Scene
Dr Jane Haworth, Clinical Psychologist, St James University Hospital, Leeds

10:10 – 10:50 Future Challenges in Transplantation
Dr ZiYi Lim, Clinical Lecturer, King's College London
& Anne Crook, Counsellor, King's College Hospital

10:50 – 11:30 An Overview of Psychological Support: Key Issues & Case Studies
Dr Anne Bond, Psychotherapist, University Hospital Birmingham
& Liz Coombes, Counselling Psychologist, University Hospital Birmingham

11:30 – 11:50 Break

	Workshop 1	Workshop 2	Workshop 3
	Pre-Transplantation Assessment & Preparation	Psychological Support in Inpatient Transplantation	Transplantation in Children & Adolescents
11:50– 12:50	Moderator: Anne Crook	Moderator: Jane Haworth	Moderator: Dr Penny Titman, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, GOSH

Please note: the above workshops will run twice, for 30' at a time, to give participants the opportunity to attend both.

12:50 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 14:00 Family-Focused Psychological Care for In-Patients with Dependent Children - Dealing with Separation and Change During Transplantation
Dr Lucy Grant, Clinical Psychologist, Royal Marsden Hospital, London

14:00 – 14:30 Psychological Aspects of Nausea & Anorexia Post-Transplantation
Dr Robin Pajmans, Macmillan Clinical Psychologist, University Hospital Birmingham

14:30 – 14:50 Break

14:50 – 15:20 Managing Post-Transplantation Late Effects – A Multidisciplinary Approach
Dr Alex King, Clinical Health Psychologist, Guy's & St Thomas Hospitals, London

15:20 – 15:50 Open Window – Making Life Easier During Transplantation
Prof Shaun McCann, Professor of Haematology, St James University Hospital, Dublin

15:50 – 16:00 Endnote: Themes & Links
Anne Crook, Jane Haworth & Alex King

Full event info www.kingshealthpartners.org/khp/2009/08/27/psychology-in-transplantation/